FILMS ABOUT WEST SPONSORED BY IMS, ARCHIVES
TO BE SHOWN THURSDAY AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

Films about Montana will be included in the final day of a free film festival Thursday, April 29, at the University of Montana.

The film showings, to be at 8 p.m. Thursday on the main floor of the UM Library, are sponsored by the UM Instructional Materials Service (IMS) and the University Archives.

Thursday's films will include "Red Sunday," dealing with the fatal battle involving Gen. George Custer; "Pride of the Capital City," which involves the Broadwater Hotel west of Helena, and "Ghost Town Montana."

IMS Director Devon Chandler and University Archivist Dale Johnson are in charge of the film presentations.
